ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED IN THE MONTH OF JUNE 2014

World Environment Day (Green Day): The celebration was highly successful in stimulating awareness in all the students from KG to class V on World Environment Day through various enriching and entertaining activities.

The day witnessed the Parade of Class I Students with placards voicing the message of 'Go Green', 'Grow More Trees', 'Save Energy', 'Save Water' etc and the students of class II fabricated a collage of real leaves to foster eco friendly cards.

June 5th also saw a reawakening of the Souhridha Environmental Club with the grouping of its members from classes IV and V into four committees namely; Cleanliness Committee, Go-Green Committee, Save Energy Committee and Reduce Plastic Committee. A rolling trophy will be awarded each quarter of the year for the best class who performs all the four tasks of the club effectively.

The KG section concluded the day's celebration in the right manner with the grand finale where the audience witnessed a colourful array of music, dance and enactment, focusing on the 'Ten Commandments' for a better environment.

Open Day and Book Exhibition were conducted on June 7th from 8.30 am to 12.30 pm.
