I could barely sleep last night because of my excitement of visiting London for the first time! I've always wanted to visit London, and I'm finally here! After we got ready in our Hotel room, we went downstairs for our complimentary breakfast. The tea and pastries were delicious, and we had amazing pancakes! We had booked bus tickets for our city tour. So soon after our breakfast, we were ready with the city map and all set to explore the city.

First, we visited the Buckingham Palace. What an experience! We were simply mesmerised looking at the beauty of the Palace. The Palace ground was huge and absolutely gorgeous! The gardens in the palace were exquisite with bright beautiful flowers and unique floral patterns. We also saw the changing of the guards, which is one of the things I've always wanted to see. We took lots and lots of photographs.

Once our Buckingham Palace experience was over, we went to a nearby restaurant. After our lunch at the restaurant, we visited the famous London Eye. It was an amazing experience and a great way to see all of London without having to walk so much.

After the London Eye experience, we wanted to make sure to find a double-decker bus so we could see enjoy the sightseeing. Some highlights that we saw were Big Ben, the River Thames, the Wax museum and the Parliament building. Then we went to the "charming little tea house" where we had our evening tea and snacks. We then returned back to our hotel for a much needed rest and to get ready for the dinner. It was indeed an awesome experience and I can't wait to head out to Paris tomorrow afternoon after some more souvenir shopping!
