Q.1 Read the given passage and answer the following

Peter was a boy who never grew up, for he had run away to live in Neverland when he was small. Neverland is an island that children visit in their dreams where anything can happen! To reach it, you have to be able to fly. Peter could fly. Sometimes when he felt lonely, he used to go back to the human world. He would listen to the bed time stories mothers told their children and as the children went to sleep, they would dream about Neverland.

If you could have looked into their minds, you would have seen a picture-map of the island, splashed with lovely flowers. It had a lake and a pirate-ship. There was a forest full of wild beasts and wild people. There were lonely hiding places. There were houses made of upside- down boats ,tents and caves.

One night (when he was visiting the human world) Peter decided to take back some playmates with him. He entered through the bedroom window. Three children were fast asleep. They were all dreaming about Neverland. Peter woke them up. "Come with me to Neverland, "he said. It will be great adventure.
