

I. Rearrange the words to make sentences and mention whether they are Declarative, Interrogative, Imperative or Exclamatory Sentences:

1. boy is naughty a David

---

2. a brave he man was

---

3. sleep tired him is as let he

---

4. food delicious is how the

---

II. Change the following Interrogative Sentences into Declarative Sentences:

1. Does he eat a mango?

---

2. Is she preparing for the exam?

---

3. Was there a cat in the Kitchen?

---

III. Change the following Declarative sentences into Interrogative Sentences:

1. They are brother and sister.

---

2. You have a toy car.

---

3. Radhika is dancing.

---

IV. On the basis of the given jumbled sentences, three sentences are made in each set. Tick the correct answer:

1. made speech she boring a what

a. She made speech boring a what.

b. What a boring speech she made!

c. She boring a speech what.

2. church a make noise in do not the

a. Make a noise in the Church do not.

b. Do not make noise in the Church.

c. Do not make a noise in the Church.

3. how much money I should give you

a. How much money should I give you?

b. How much should I give you money?

c. I should give you money, how much?