SECTION – A (UNSEEN COMPREHENSION)

I. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below:-

Timmy had fractured his arm. When he went to the hospital he was made to sit in a chair and rest his arm on a table. Timmy was scared. He thought it was going to hurt but the nurse told him that he would only have to sit in front of a machine which would take the picture of his house. This picture was taken through an X-ray machine. X-rays can take pictures through cloth, leather, wood etc. X-rays were discovered when William Roentgen, a scientist was experimenting with electricity. Today X-rays are widely used in hospitals, factories and buildings. We can check the parts of automobiles, aeroplanes and radios. We can also find out whether there are pipes and wires behind the walls of old buildings.
