I was born twenty years ago _____ a printing press. _____ sometime I was kept _____ a dark and dingy room. _____ there I was taken _____ a bookseller's shop. After few days, a customer came _____ the shop , bought me and took me home. He kept me _____ a table _____ his drawing room. During winter, my master went _____ a trip and took me along with him. I travelled _____ my master _____ trains, buses and taxi. Whenever my master read me, I was happy. Once his three year old boy took me _____ his room and threw me _____ a bucket full of water. But his elder sister's eyes fell _____ me and she took me out of the bucket. To save me _____ cold, she kept me _____ sunshine. But day by day I grew paler and paler. So my master took me and kept me _____ an old book shelf. Since then nobody touched me for many years. Now I am eagerly waiting _____ regain my master's love but I know the chances are less.
