Short answer questions (30-40 words)

- (a) What was precisely the motive for MrsPackletide to shoot a tiger? 2

Ans : Mrs. Packletide was not compelled by any adventurous feelings and she was least inclined towards any such kind of dangerous activities. Her sole aim was to counter Loona Bimberton’s fame, who had flown in an aircraft. So Mrs. Packletide wanted to hunt a tiger and get her photos in magazines, to make Loona jealous.

- (b) What was Loona’s adventure? How did MrsPackletide react to it? 2

Ans :Loona had flown in an aircraft 11 miles with an Algerian pilot, so she had graced the cover pages of some magazines. MrsPackletide had been smitten by jealousy. So, to outshine Loona, she decided to do something more adventurous like a tiger hunt.

- (c) Why is Mrs Packletide compared to 'Nimrod'? 2
Ans : Nimrod was a legendary hunter. Mrs. Packletide was not at all adventurous and had no inclination towards such a sport. The writer has used this comparison to create mockery and lash at such vain females.
- (d) How was the tiger shooting arranged? What kind of a tiger was chosen for the purpose? 2
Ans: The tiger shooting was arranged in neighboring village. A platform was built in a comfortable and conveniently placed on a tree for Mrs. Packletide and her paid companion Miss Louisa Mebbin. A noisy goat was tethered at the correct distance to attract the tiger. The tiger chosen for this purpose was weak, diseased tiger who could not hunt wild animals due to old age.
- (e) Why does Miss Mebbin plant so many tiger lilies in her garden?
Ans: Miss Mebbin plants so many tiger lilies in her garden to pay tribute to the tiger because of which she has become owner of the week-end-cottage by black mailing Mrs. Packletide.

LONG ANSWER QUESTIONS (80-100 words)

- i) 'Mrs. Packletide indulges in no more big-game shooting. "The incidental expenses are so heavy." She confides to inquiring friends.'—Loona Bimberton and Mrs. Packletide are perfect examples of human folly and greed. One's greed can lead to one's doom and vanity can destroy a person's joy of life. Explain the statement in a short paragraph. 8
Greed is a curse and can lead to one's doom. Since the creation of man, human heart has always been filled with different sorts of desires. It is human nature to achieve more and more. Man is never contented with his things. There is no limit to materialistic achievements and a man who has excessive materialistic desire can stop to any level. Such a person is always dissatisfied. His moral and spiritual graph is very low. The greed for more makes man an animal and greed is the vice which can make a man a criminal even. One's greed can lead to one's doom and can destroy a person's joy of life.
